Originally built in 1887 as one of the first Post Offices in Queensland, the iconic Sandgate Post Office has a new lease on life. Stylish and quintessentially Sandgate, it is a destination venue with an elegant gastro-pub restaurant, a vibrant Main Bar, a whisky vault and sun soaked, alfresco dining.

Standing proud in Sandgate for 135 years, the heritage of the building has been embraced with a renovation that honours the role that the Post Office has had in the community for over a century.
